

Appointment of County Extension Directors

Temporary Internal Recruitment April 2009

WSU Extension provides equal opportunity in employment and personnel management for all persons and prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, gender, religion, age, color, creed, national or ethnic origin; physical, mental or sensory disability; marital status, sexual orientation, gender expression/identity, or status as a veteran. Except in counties where the county director is a full time administrative position, county directors are WSU Extension faculty with a temporary administrative responsibility. For county director positions in counties with two or more faculty, a program assignment is combined with administrative responsibilities. For all counties, it is organizational practice to consider internal applicants who desire county director appointment.

APPOINTMENT PROCEDURE

Effective April 2009, and until further notice, internal applicants will be considered first to fill vacant extension county director positions within Washington State University (WSU). The internal recruitment process is in accordance with WSU processes for internal recruitment information is available on the HRS website at: <http://www.hrs.wsu.edu/Page.aspx?NewsItem=487> This is a temporary process.

All processes as outlined in the WSU freeze guidelines will apply. Positions must be authorized and approved in accordance with the freeze guidelines.

The Associate Dean for Extension, College of Agricultural, Human, and Natural Resource Sciences (CAHNRS) can answer questions about the temporary recruitment procedures. Please contact extension@wsu.edu with specific questions.